

BLACK SAIL

Wind is howling

Serene and free

Coming from far and wide

You know why

Wind has changed

Heading forward

Time to wake those lies

Adrifted, unwanted

No chance to withdraw

Black Sail

Always sailing without a light

Breathing only dust

Now lying high and dry

Fearing of the sky above

Can make you cry

But fear becomes a friend

Don't watch the rival in the eyes

In deep ocean of blind soul

You must see what's untrue (and true...)

Black Sail

Always sailing without a light

Illusion of calm night again
Fighting for that dream in vain

Black Sail

Without a light

Without a light

Black Sail

Always sailing without a light
Illusion of calm night again
Fighting for that dream in vain

Black Sail
